See what Company's Editor Victoria White has worn to work today...

This is a bit of a different outfit for me today - more fitted than usual. My jumper is by Freesoul who make incredible jeans but also cool other stuff too. You can buy their stuff on Yogoego.com. My jeans are my old faves Uniqlo (has anyone else had their jean life changed by them - I know they aren't nationwide but am sure you can get stuff online) My boots are from Aldo and really comfy despite being toweringly high. What is everyone else wearing to work today?

Check back tomorrow to see what Victoria's worn to work.
